

Canby School District presents:

Bilingual Teacher Pathway (BTP) Program

Are you a bilingual/bicultural person? Have you ever considered becoming a teacher? If so, this program is for you!

The Bilingual Teacher Pathway (BTP) Program is a part-time teacher preparation program designed for working adults who want to become teachers. Earn your teaching license and ESOL endorsement at the undergraduate or graduate level.

INFORMATION MEETING

Wednesday, November 16, 2016

3:45pm

Canby District Office

1130 S. Ivy Street, Canby

QUALIFIED APPLICANTS MUST:

- Be employed and endorsed by one of BTP's school district partners
- Be bilingual/bicultural
- Have a bachelor's degree OR at least 120 credit hours of undergraduate work
- Meet university admission requirements

Applications available online for fall 2017:
pdx.edu/ci/btp

Contact: Cindy Bauer, bauerc@canby.k12.or.us

"I was happy to find a program that worked around my schedule. It emphasizes diversity and provides an ESOL endorsement."

—BTP graduate

BTP PARTNER SCHOOL DISTRICTS

Beaverton

Canby

David Douglas

Gresham-Barlow

Hillsboro

North Clackamas

Portland Public

Reynolds

Salem-Keizer

Tigard-Tualatin

Woodburn

West Linn-Wilsonville

Application deadline
April 17, 2017